

Ratsupport.com Cookie Policy

HOW DOES Ratsupport.com USE COOKIES?

A cookie is a small piece of text that allows a website to recognize your device and maintain a consistent, cohesive experience throughout multiple sessions. If you use the Ratsupport.com Website, both Ratsupport.com and third parties will use cookies to track and monitor some of your activities on and off the Ratsupport.com Website, and store and access some data about you, your browsing history, and your usage of Ratsupport.com.

This policy describes how both Ratsupport.com and other third parties use cookies both within and without the Ratsupport.com Website and how you can exercise a greater degree of control over cookies. Please keep in mind that control over cookies may alter your experience with our platform, and may limit certain features (including being logged in as a user).

General Browsing: We use cookies that are important for certain technical features of our website, like logging into user accounts and implementing fixes and improvements to our platform.

These cookies:

- Enable behavior in our Products and/or Services that are tailored to the activity or preferences of a person visiting our Website
- Allow users to opt out of certain types of modeling, tailoring, or personalization in our Website
- Collect information on our users' preferences in order to create more useful products
- Help to diagnose and correct downtime, bugs, and errors in our code to ensure that our products are operating efficiently

Analytics: We use cookies to compile usage activity in order to better cater our Services to you, and to third parties. We DO NOT share identifiable "raw" data with our clients or any third parties, however we do make high-level decisions based on aggregated data about your usage of our Services.

These cookies:

- Monitor site traffic and behavior flows of users

WHAT INFORMATION IS COLLECTED ON ME VIA COOKIES?

In general, we collect most data from you via form submission. However, there are cases when visiting our site in which we may receive certain information through the use of cookies. This data will generally not include personally identifying information about you.

- Unique identification tokens

Third Party Cookies: The use of cookies, the names of cookies, and other cookies related cookies, technology may change over time and Ratsupport.com will make all reasonable efforts to notify you by updating our cookies table where material changes occur and from time-to-time. Please also note that companies and other organization that monitor pages on Ratsupport.com may use cookies or other technologies to learn more about your interest in their products and services and in some cases to tailor such products and services to you.

HOW DO I RESTRICT COOKIES?

If you don't want Ratsupport.com to use cookies when you visit the Ratsupport.com Website, you can opt-out of certain cookie related processing activities in your browser. If you opt-out of cookies, we (ironically) have to set a cookie to tell us that. Please note that Ratsupport.com may not work properly and you may have diminished functionality if you opt-out of certain cookies.

If you decide that you do not want cookies to be set on your device by our third-party Partners, you can adjust the settings on your internet browser and choose from the available Cookies setting to best meet your preferences. While setting options may vary from browser to browser, you can generally choose to reject some or all cookies, or instead to receive a notification when a cookie is being placed on your device. For more information, please refer to the user help information for your browser of choice. Please keep in mind that cookies may be required for certain functionalities, and by blocking these cookies, you may limit your access to certain parts or features of our sites and platforms.

Finally, while cookies are set for varying duration on your device, you can manually delete them at any time. However, deleting cookies will not prevent the site from setting further cookies on your device unless you adjust the settings discussed above.
